

The Baskets are made by sewing cocoons by hand using a technique developed by the Saraburi community in Thailand. These are multi-purpose open containers that can be used to organize things in a drawer or a desk. They may also be used as display items around the home.

The cocoons have a rough texture on the outside but beautiful luster on the inside which enhances its charm when exposed to light. The object is not only a useful household item but also a conversation starter.

Available in 3 sizes: Small, Medium, Large

Primary Material: Natural fiber

Primary Color: White

Customization: This product is not customizable.