

The Plantable Toothbrush is the first of its kind in the world. Each toothbrush has a native tree seed embedded in the handle and can be grown into a plant after use. The naturally carbon-infused bristles are soft as well as biodegradable.

Each toothbrush is also engraved with a motif representing an endangered species as an identifier in order to increase awareness for the cause.

Dimensions: L20 x W11 x H3 cm

Primary Material: Bamboo

Primary Color: Natural

Available Variants:

Customization: This product is not customizable.