

Boost your immunity with this well-loved combo of lemongrass and ginger mixed with dried butterfly pea flowers.

This invigorating, blue concoction contains:

- 100% natural and certified organic ingredients that are hand-blended and hand packed in recyclable paper-based packaging
- No caffeine
- No sugar

Butterfly pea flowers are commonly found in South and Southeast Asia. The flower is made up of a compound called anthocyanins, a type of antioxidant commonly found in other dark-colored foods such as blueberries, grapes, and eggplant. When steeped, the flower imbues the water with its natural vivid blue color.
