

Rose quartz is a therapeutic stone that has long been associated with love, calmness, and healing, and Rose Quartz Facial Rollers can be used day and night to wake up your skin and help you unwind before bed. This stone is especially great for promoting qi circulation, detoxing, lifting, and softening fine lines. Unlike jade, which warms upon skin contact, this stone remains cool throughout use.

The larger, oval stone is made for flatter planes such as your cheeks, forehead, and jaw areas, while the smaller, round stone is perfect for your nose, mouth, and eye areas. When used with your topical oil or serum, this facial roller can also enhance product absorption and further amplify your desired skin results.

Benefits:

- Stimulate facial qi circulation
