

Take Five Reviving Aloe Mist is a multi-use face and body mist that instantly hydrates and soothes dehydrated skin with an energizing cactus fruit scent. Packed with reviving desert extracts to calm redness and cool skin, this is your after-sun refresher or pick-me-up.

It is a lightweight, fine mist that soothes, revives skin, and calms redness. It leaves skin super hydrated and quenched with aloe vera, baobab seed oil, and hyaluronic acid.

The mist has an energizing, summery scent powered by cactus fruit.
