

Characterized by the pastel rainbow paint that graces its exterior, Choi Hung Estate (meaning 'rainbow' in Cantonese) in Ngau Chi Wan has become a conspicuous photographic icon of Hong Kong. Choi Hung Estate has since gained a form of iconic social status. Time and again, its architecture is validated for its aesthetic appeal, whether through winning an architectural award, serving as a backdrop in award-winning photographs or featured in feeds upon feeds, garnering hundreds and thousands of likes on Instagram.

We print using a Canon image PROGRAF PRO-500 specifically designed to deliver archival-grade prints with the highest sharpness and accuracy.

We print on heavyweight 310g sm smooth premium fine art paper. Our paper is 100% cotton rag, archival and acid-free for image longevity and high durability.

Approximately P2 40 x 56 cm including a 1 cm white border 310 gsm, 100% cotton rag, archival and acid-free paper.

Dimensions: L36 x W28 cm

Primary Material: Paper

Primary Color: Multicolor

Customization: This product is not customizable.