

The celestial Dragon is an auspicious animal in Chinese traditional culture, representing honor, strength, and happiness. While the Peony is the king amongst flowers, a most opulent and gorgeous representative.

Combining Auspicious Clouds and Butterflies, the use of Imperial 24K gold leaf and 6 pastel hues from historical Palace fashions, TALES conveys the meaning of 龍華富貴 ('Long Hua Fu Gui') while revealing refreshingly innovative interplay between heritage motifs and contemporary aesthetics!

In this Year of the Dragon, TALES wishes everyone an upwards promotion in life, seen as a "flying dragon in the Heavens" (飛龍在天), smooth day-to-day comings and goings with "cycles of dragon luck" (龍行大運), and the daily enjoyment of "dragon wealth" (龍華富貴)!

Using an innovative enamel crafting process, this lively dragon is vividly presented on a delicate bone-thin fired porcelain, with a meticulous, elegant and sinuous form.
