

'A Bottle of Tea' is Mooyee's newly upgraded version 2.0 tea set for 1 person. With the fast pace of daily living, consumers prefer convenience and efficiency of movement while on-the-go!

Compared with the brewing process for traditional tea sets, these simply designed tea sets crafted in the form of contemporary bottles offer today's discerning tea drinkers a more efficient filtered brewing function.

Matt powder glazes are usually fired at high temperatures from 1300°C to 1320°C. This high-temperature process ensures durability of the glaze, allowing it to remain beautiful and strong over long periods of use. This type of matt glaze offers a unique feature, where it does not glow with reflective luster, but appears as a soft frosting. This effect is perceived as gentler, reducing reflection, thus appearing more natural. Industry nomenclature "flat glaze" originates from the narrative that glistening vessels from Northern Song Dynasty were gradually evolved by skilled artisans to appear smoother and more refined over the years.

This is a vessel comfortably held in the palm of one's hand that tea drinkers simply cannot put down.
