

Inspired by the lights of the Equinox dancing through the fiery colors of Fall leaves; the breath of Autumn blended with the crisp aroma of sunburnt leaves driving winds of change, harkening winters with its cool breeze. Artisanally handcrafted using organic 100% soy wax and real whole spices, hang our lush soy bars inside your bathroom, bedroom, or cupboards, to let them evoke intimate memories.

Each sachet is carefully hand-poured and thoughtfully decorated with dried marigold leaves, offering a woven jute rope for a natural presentation. Each sachet is stored inside a jute drawstring bag, for ease of storage with your clothes and to prevent color bleed. This sachet is inspired by our limited edition candle, Pachva.
