

The Raunji Chair showcases a design crafted from salvaged plank wood in a drift finish, offering a charming and rustic appeal. It features a putty gray leather pillow with black Opus lacing, adding a stylish contrast. The brown canvas cushion with putty trim enhances comfort while providing a classic touch. Black Opus leather handles contribute to its distinctive design, while the brass details add a hint of elegance.

This chair blends various materials and textures, making it a unique statement piece for any space.
